

TIM Student Learning Objectives (4/6/2009)

for the Bachelor of Science Degree

1. Effective Communication

- a. Students can employ communication skills effectively to accomplish organizational and professional objectives.

2. Leadership and Teamwork

- a. Students can demonstrate leadership.
- b. Students can work effectively, respectfully, and professionally as a team member.

3. Critical and Creative Thinking

- a. Students can analyze situations and develop alternative options to resolve identified issues.
- b. Students can select appropriate information to develop reliable, valid, and logical arguments.

4. Knowledge and Global Perspective

- a. From a global perspective, students can explain and apply the principles of travel industry management and of hospitality, tourism, and/or transportation management.

5. Ethics and Stewardship

- a. Students can demonstrate integrity and ethical behavior.
- b. Students can comprehend the importance of host cultures to the global travel industry and apply sustainable practices.