September 2017

Aloha!

The University of Hawai'i at Mānoa School of Travel Industry Management (TIM), TIM International, Inc. (TIMI), and its alumni have a long history of supporting the success of tourism in Hawai'i, the Pacific and the world. TIMI, the TIM School Alumni Association, supports the TIM School in its education mission. The proceeds of the annual auction fund student scholarships and awards to outstanding students and faculty as well as student development activities and other TIM School programs.

The TIM School's success depends on many people in the industry and our community, including sponsors, students, alumni and the travel industry. We are calling upon our partners to support our future industry leaders by generously donating to our fundraising auction.

This year our online auction will commence starting November 1 – November 17, 2017. With thousands of alumni and friends now having access to the on-line auction worldwide, we anticipate raising additional funds and increased exposure for your company as a supporter.

Please complete the enclosed auction donation agreement form and mail or fax the form back by Monday, October 16, 2017. If you have any questions, please contact our TIMI Auction Coordinator, Lee-Ann Choy at (808) 808-864-9812 or email lachoy@hawaii.edu.

We look forward to your donation and your continuing support of the UH TIM program.

Mahalo,

Glenn Perry
